

The Kitchen Center for Video and Music
press release

TONY CONRAD PERFORMANCES AND INSTALLATION AT THE KITCHEN

December 29 and 30

8:30 PM

$3.50/$2 Members

On Thursday and Friday, December 29 and 30, artist/composer Tony Conrad will present Tiding Over Till Tomorrow (solo piano) and Tiding Over the Forgotten Presence (video works with piano). In the performances, Mr. Conrad will be assisted by Anne Turyn.

During the day, from Tuesday, December 20 through Friday, December 30, (Tuesday-Saturday 1-6 pm), Mr. Conrad will exhibit a selection of his film pieces such as Raw Film (1973), Deep Fried (1973), and Fade (1976), as well as other recent works.

Tony Conrad has exhibited internationally, most recently at Documenta VI in Kassel, West Germany.

---

INSTALLATIONS AND PERFORMANCES
IN JANUARY

Robert Ashley	(performance)	Jan. 6 & 7
Amy Taubin	(installation)	Jan. 10 - 14
	(performance)	Jan. 13 & 14
Dara Birnbaum	(installation)	Jan. 17 - 28
Suzanne Kuffler	(installation)	Jan. 17 - 28
Ann Wilson	(performance)	Jan. 18 & 19
Kirk Nurock	(music)	Jan. 20
Bob Carroll	(performance)	Jan. 21
James Nares	(performance)	Jan. 24
David Hykes with the Harmonics Choir		Jan. 28

For more information, contact Eric Bogosian 925-3615

The Kitchen Center is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, a Federal Agency, and the New York State Council on the Arts.

484 Broome Street between West Broadway and Wooster, New York City