

THE KITCHEN

CENTER FOR VIDEO, MUSIC
AND DANCE

SUNDAY / 14

Really Cooking: If you miss these two nights, you are a fool. First of all, the Tenth Anniversary Party for the Kitchen (Center for Music, Art, Video, Dance, Performance) includes the best live acts who have appeared there. Sunday: Eric Bogosian, Glenn Branca, DNA, Douglas Dunn, Fab Five Freddie, Lisa Fox, John Giorgio, Philip Glass (with possible guest star David Bowie??), Leroy Jenkins Quintet, Peter Gordon and Love of Life Orchestra, John Lurie, the Raybeats, Jules Baptiste and Red Decade, Zev; Monday (still with me?): sound artist Maryanne Amacher, Laurie Anderson, Robert Ashley, the Bush Tetras, Jim Carroll, Rhys Chatham, Laura Dean Musicians, the Feelies, Julius Hemphill, George Lewis, Bebe Miller Dancers, Meredith Monk, Steve Reich, Arnie Zane Dancers with Ross Levinson, and many surprise special guests. Secondly (as if all that were not enough), ticket prices — $15 per evening in advance, $25 for both nights, $18 each at the door — are for artists' fees for '81-82 year. Thirdly, there will be video programs curated by Tom Bowes, Brian Eno, Nam June Paik and others, and intermittent performances by Dan Aykroyd and others previously mentioned. Fourthly, it's at Bond's (Broadway at Times Square), which puts the downtown avant scene practically back to back with the Clash. Tickets at Bond's or Ticketron, shows from 8 till 2. See you there.
