The Kitchen presents the world premiere of Untitled (disambiguation), A solo exhibition by artist Jacob Kassay, January 9 – February 16, 2013

New York, NY, December 20, 2012 – From January 9 to February 16, 2013, The Kitchen presents Untitled (disambiguation), a solo exhibition of new works by artist Jacob Kassay. The exhibition features wall-based works in which Kassay engages the specific spatial properties of The Kitchen's gallery and building. Curated by Matthew Lyons, the exhibition will also include a performance with percussionists Will Redman and Kevin Shea on Friday, January 25.

There will be an opening reception at The Kitchen (512 West 19th Street) on Wednesday, January 9 from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 12:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. and Saturday, 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. Admission is free to the exhibition.

With Untitled (disambiguation), Kassay endeavors to affect and augment one's experience of the room by attending to the shifting visual field and a variety of supports. Grounded in Kassay's interest in how reductive formal strategies serve the quality of one's attention, the installation is also informed by thoughts about silence, resonance, and introspection.

In the performance, Redman (of Microkingdom and The Compositions) and Shea (of Talibam! and Mostly Other People Do The Killing) will interpret a graphic score created by Kassay. Check www.thekitchen.org for ticketing updates.

Jacob Kassay was born in Lewiston, NY. He received his BFA from State University of New York at Buffalo and now lives and works Los Angeles. This is the artist's first solo show in New York in nearly 4 years. Recent solo shows include Art: Concept, Paris; Protocinema, Istanbul; and The Power Station, Dallas (Catalogue).
