THE BEST...

...chance to see three works in one dance

DD Dorvillier's Notttthing Is Importantttt, a "suite of three conditions" performed at the Kitchen, created a world that began in a black box, switched to a film and ended with a dance in the dark.

...reason to corrupt a fairy tale

Ann Liv Young presented her strident and darkly funny take on Snow White at the Kitchen; the production took a fascinating turn on itself with the concluding, meticulous radio show.
