GRETCHEN BENDER: 'TRACKING THE THRILL' (closes on Saturday) A selection of works by Gretchen Bender (1951-2004) blurs the divide between high art and mass culture: her artworks are exhibited alongside music videos she edited for bands like Megadeth, R.E.M. and New Order. The central work here is an ambitious installation, "Total Recall," an 18-minute, 24-monitor onslaught of images, sound and computer animation that was shown at the Kitchen in 1987.
