VOICE

VOL. XXXV NO. 9 • THE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER OF NEW YORK • FEBRUARY 27, 1990

George Lewis: The right side of Lewis's brain is a cool trombone improviser. His left is a computer capable of the most sophisticated graphics and sound modifications presently possible. When they come together, as they will in his new, political, multimedia work The Empty Chair, sparks fly; especially with Douglas Ewart on winds, David Behrman on electronics, actor Bernard Mixon, and video delights. February 24 and 25 at 8:30, the Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, 255-5793. (Gann)
