

The Kitchen Center for Video and Music
press release

PERFORMANCE IN JANUARY

ANN WILSON

JAN. 18 & 19
($3.50/$2 Members)
(TDF THEATER VOUCHERS ACCEPTED)

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS. A dynamic collage involving architecture, sculpture, painting, opera and dance. Conceived and designed by Ann Wilson. The opera, by Gene Rickard and Steve Tuttle, is composed of writings from the journals and notebooks of well-known artists and writers.

BOB CARROLL

JAN. 21
($3.50/$2 Members)
(TDF THEATER VOUCHERS ACCEPTED)

Bob Carroll is a phenomenon, a theatrical show unto himself. Using only his body and voice, he conjures a universe before one's eyes. Included in the evening will be The Life of W.C. Fields and The History of China from Prehistoric Times to the Present. Also included are shorter pieces.

JAMES NARES

JAN. 24
($2/$1 Members)
(TDF THEATER VOUCHERS ACCEPTED)

Regular TV programming is viewed by Nares as he is "hooked up" to a television set which is not visible to the audience. The performance develops a chilling ambience as Nares switches channels moving through the dreamlike realm of television shows.

The Kitchen Center is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, a Federal Agency, and the New York State Council on the Arts.