Christian Jankowski

Us and Them

October 21–December 9, 2006

Opening Reception: Saturday, October 21 6–8pm

Curated by Matthew Lyons and Debra Singer

Best-known for involving a range of non-artists—such as televangelists, psychics, and theorists—in the creative development of his works, Christian Jankowski presents new and recent videos, films, photography, and sculpture that question traditional ideas of artistic authorship and experiment with commercial filmmaking conventions. Exploring in particular the genre of “horror,” the exhibition suggests how cinematic visions of monstrosity and violence can also communicate broader notions of transformation, revenge, and redemption.

Exhibition Hours: Tue–Fri, 12-6pm; Sat 11-7pm Free

Exhibition programs at The Kitchen are made possible with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, a state agency.
