The Kitchen's Soho Years

Thursday, July 07, 2011

An audio player interface. On the left is a speaker icon and the word 'AUDIO'. In the center is a progress bar with a play button on the left and a volume icon on the right, both flanked by '00:00' time markers. Below the progress bar are several interactive buttons: 'Listen' (with a play icon), 'Add' (with a plus icon), 'Download' (with a download icon), 'Embed' (with a code icon), and 'Stream m3u' (with a refresh icon).

Deb Singer and Eric Bogosian discuss the 40th anniversary of The Kitchen, and the exhibition "View from a Volcano: The Kitchen's Soho Years, 1971-85." The show offers a unique perspective on the vibrant downtown New York arts scene of the 1970s and early 1980s and features audio, video, and print documentation from The Kitchen's years in Soho, as well as single-channel videos and other artworks by Eric Bogosian, Laurie Anderson, Vito Acconci, John Cage, Bill T. Jones, Meredith Monk, Steve Reich, Carolee Schneeman, Bill Viola, and others. "View from a Volcano: The Kitchen's Soho Years, 1971-85" is on view at The Kitchen through August 27.
