KLAUS LUTZ: 'SELECTED STORIES'

(closes on Saturday) Working in an East Village apartment, Lutz (1940-2009) created goofy, densely layered, allegorically loaded short movies that look as if they'd been made by an experimental filmmaker in the 1920s. Along with three of his films, two projected on large balloons, this show includes "The Beauty of My Island — Shooting Klaus Lutz," a video by the Swiss filmmaker Frank Matter. It's a fascinating portrait of a truly original artist. The Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, Chelsea, 212-255-5793, thekitchen.org. (Johnson)
