DANCE

By The New Yorker

HEATHER KRAVAS AND ANTONIJA LIVINGSTONE

The title of the duo's last work was unpronounceable; the title of their new one is a pictogram. (It looks like the silhouette of a skyline, with a red slash through it, as in a "No Parking" sign.) The dance, likely to be as inscrutable as the title, tries to defamiliarize funeral processions, folk dances, and other social customs. (The Kitchen, 512 W. 19th St. 212-255-5793, ext. 11. April 4-5 at 8.)
