"(Mikel Rouse's) Falling Kansas (is) the best work I've seen by someone of the new generation..." -Village Voice

Salvation at the end of the 20th Century?

*Dennis Cleveland is a multimedia opera set entirely on a television talk show. This timely work evolves as a series of confessions by Cleveland's television guests, witnessed by the talk show host and his live studio audience. In addition to the common, sensationalist topics of a talk show, the work examines faith and religion in a society dominated by pop culture icons and television.
Film Direction by Alex Steyermark.*
