

THE NEW YORK TIMES, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1994

ARTS AND LEISURE GUIDE

Performance Art

BLUE MAN GROUP — "Tubes," with Matt Goldman, Phil Stanton and Chris Wink. Astor Place, 434 Lafayette St. (254-4370) Sun., 5; Wed., 5 and 8; Thur., 8; Fri.-Sat., 7 and 10.

DANCE THEATER WORKSHOP — "Evidence of Floods," a puppet-theater work by Janie Geiser and Co., about a woman's search for self-identity. 219 W. 19th St. (924-0077) Today, 3; Thur.-Sat., 8; next Sun., 3.

DIXON PLACE — Mon., 8; Fri.-Sat., 10:30: Hapi Phace's "My Tiny Life." Also Fri., 8: "Brand New Dance," a monthly dance series by Yoshiko Chuma; with Linda Austin, Grazia Dellaterza, Rosanna Gamson, Audrey Kindred, Nina Martin, others. Also Sat., 8: Babs Davy; Linda Mancini. 258 Bowery, south of Houston St. (219-3088)

"THE HEATHER WOODBURY REPORT" — A nine-month performance work. The Fort, at Sidewalks, 94 Avenue A, at Sixth St. (473-7373) Wed., 8. Through Nov. 30.

THE KITCHEN — Electronic Cafe: Thur., 8: "Cafe Barbie," a discussion and visual-arts exhibition about the Barbie doll, with Lauren Hutton, Betty Friedan, Holly Brubach and others. Fri., 10: "Multimedia Teleconcert," featuring Morton Subotnick, Leo Smith, J. B. Floyd, David Rosenboom and Steina Vasulka. 512 W. 19th St. (255-5793)

P.S. 122 — Today at 9: Laurie Carlos and Diedre Murray's "Unending Pain." Today, Thur.-Sun., 7:30: Carmelita Tropicana. Through next Sunday. Thur.-next Sun., 9: Dennis O'Connor's "Bacchae." Fri.-Sat., 10:30: Reno in "All New Stuff." Through Nov. 12. 150 First Ave., at Ninth St. (477-5288)