DANCE

CATHY WEIS Melding disparate bodies, fusing image with reality, exploring multiple ways of seeing, this ballet dancer turned experimental video performance choreographer marshals some of Downtown's finest—Jennifer Monson, Jennifer Miller, Ishmael Houston-Jones, Anne Iobst, and Scott Heron—in the premiere of Gravity Twins, which uses live and prerecorded video images and sound as well as dancers in the flesh. High tech meets low humor; the result can be magic. Thursday through Sunday at 8, Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, 255-5793. (Zimmer)
