STATIC

Spectator: Abstracted and ritualized domestic life with an accent on strife characterizes Kit Fitzgerald and John Sanborn's work. A video/sound installation, Spectator mixes a pretaped quarrel with ongoing action on the same set located in the gallery. By sitting in a specially designated "hot seat," the viewer actually enters the story in a fulfillment of every soap opera addict's fantasies. Both taped drama and the gallery are heavily amplified, adding a spontaneous symphony of noise to the continuing unrest. Through October 11, The Kitchen, 484 Broome Street, 925-3615. (Wooster)
