

THE NEW YORKER

October 7, 2013

GOINGS ON ABOUT TOWN

The Kitchen: Claire Chase

Chase, whose work as a risk-taking virtuoso flutist and new-music impresario won her a MacArthur Fellowship in 2012, comes to Chelsea's stalwart space for innovative performance to celebrate the release of her third solo CD, "Density." In addition to works by Reich, Glass, Lucier, and Marcos Balter, the concert includes a foundation stone of the repertory: Varèse's "Density 21.5." (512 W. 19th St. 212-255-5793. Oct. 3 at 8.)