

February 12, 1997

Time Out New York

COMEDY

Starturn The '80s comedy boom brought stardom to Roseanne and Billy Crystal. Linda Hill, their former San Francisco club colleague, came out of it with her very own stalker. Hill now retraces her San Fran days—and the obsessed weirdo fan who wanted more show than Hill was willing to give—in Star 69, a black comedy of a one-woman show that mixes old comedy clips, audiotape, phone records and cold, hard stalking statistics in a vivid tale. See Wed 19.