

the village VOICE FREE

March 2, 1999

DUE VIRTUOSI: DAVID KRAKAUER/GUY

KLUCEVSEK: Krakauer performs "Clarinetheater," a free-range exploration of the instrument's old- and brave- new-world possibilities that includes "Doin' a Death March" (concerning the Holocaust), "Rothko on Broadway," and "Unknown White Clarinet." Accordion virtuoso Klucevsek is joined by fellow squeezers Ted Reichman and Anne DeMarinis for "All Accordions All the Time." Kitchen, at 8. (Gehr)

DUE VIRTUOSI: DAVID KRAKAUER/GUY

KLUCEVSEK: The clarinetist is joined by Uri Caine for "Clarinetheater," a free-range exploration of the instrument's old- and brave-new-world possibilities that includes "Rothko on Broadway" and "Unknown White Clarinet." Virtuosi accordionist Guy Klucevsek and composer-keyboardist Alan bern (of Brave New World) perform Klucevsek's "Bar Talk" and "Life, Liberty, and the Prosciutto Happiness," "Hegel's Fantasy" by Bern, and other amusingly titled works. Kitchen, at 8. (Gehr)