DAVID SHEA

Shock Corridor and Other Works

Saturday, November 23, 1991

8:30pm

Tickets: $10, Members $5

Composer/turntable artist David Shea presents three live new ensemble works. Shock Corridor explores the sonic interior of Sam Fuller's psycho-film classic. Shea also presents Trio for Samplers and Solo for Four Turntables. Musicians include Jim Staley, David Weinstein, Shelley Hirsch, Anthony Coleman, Ikue Mori, Zeena Parks and David Shea.

David Shea studied music at Oberlin College. He is currently scoring a feature length film written by and starring Karole Armitage. Shea is well known throughout New York for his mixing work in various downtown clubs and also for his collaborations with composers such as John Zorn.
