

The image features a golden monogram, possibly a stylized 'L' or 'N', centered on a circular, textured background. To the right, a faint, glowing silhouette of a woman stands. The overall aesthetic is ethereal and artistic, with a golden-brown color palette. The background has a fine, woven texture.

As we approach the next millenium, artists and philosophers search for new forms of knowledge to spark creativity. Neithardt (a Jungian inspired cultural visionary, mystic and prophetic dreamer) presents her thoughts on the development of a creative renaissance. A series of performance/lectures dealing with the paradoxes of contemporary society and the tensions which distort, transform and shape our lives.

Opus 22: Envy

December 4, 8pm

The prevalence of envy is the single most dangerous unconscious current within our society. The ancient destroyer of both art and artist. Neithardt will assist us to enter, explore and return from this maze like pathology transformed into the gold of consciousness. $12

Money: The Split Within

January 22, 8pm

As much creativity and effort is put into manifesting poverty as well as its opposite. The unconscious split image within will determine the result. Trading the original female principle behind money, bringing it forth from the shadow, where it rules, to a conscious creative expression. $12

Womanchrist

March 26, 8pm

A profound reordering of the feminine image, defining a new archetype for the 21st century. A not so subtle approach to the concept of soul making. $12
