Hoofers' House is an ongoing quarterly series where some of the best of New York City's rhythm tap community come together to share and showcase their moves. Among the most unique and cutting edge tap jam sessions in the city, Hoofers' House has been propelling a rejuvenation of the genre for the last several years with the addition of live and electronic music and projected visuals. Prominent past participants who have graced the floor include figures such as Fayard Nicholas, Jimmy Slyde, Tina Pratt, Jason Bernard and Ayodele Casel. So come enjoy the show or bring your shoes and join the jam!

This program is made possible with generous support from Altria Group, Inc., The Harkness Foundation for Dance, The Jerome Robbins Foundation, the Mertz Gilmore Foundation, and with public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs and the New York State Council on the Arts, a state agency.
