'WE COULD BE SHEROES':
Perhaps, more than anything, what separates earlier generations of ambitious women from today's feminists is that, to us, men are not models and mentors—but other women are. For four nights, a parade of talented female performers honors dames who have breathed life into their hopes and eased the damage of being branded the “second sex.” Celebrants include, among many more: Ann Magnuson, Eileen Myles, Pat Oleszko, DANCENOISE, Five Lesbian Bros., Mimi Goese, Alva Rogers, Lisa Kron, Deb Margolin, and Marty Pottenger. October 21 through 24 at 8:30, the Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, 255-5793. (Stone)
