

CENTERFOLD - MARCH 27- APRIL 2

VIDEO

The Box Theory: There are still four days to catch Owen Land a/k/a George Landow's 10-minute tape—a hypnotic synthesis of every '60s trend from Pop Art to lysergic Minimalism. Complete with a comically looped Philip Glass soundtrack, The Box Theory is one of the most assertive video-objects since Joan Jonas's Vertical Roll. Through March 30, Kitchen Video Viewing Room, 59 Wooster Street, 925-3615. (Hoberman)

Niagara Falls: Summer, Fall, and Winter: Shiegho Kubota's new installation is a video hymn to nature. A bank of monitors showing Niagara Falls (straight, colorized, and digitalized) is reflected in a mirror-lined pool plus fountain. Mirror fragments scattered on the floor provide the painterly equivalent of water drops. Through March 30, the Kitchen, 59 Wooster Street, 925-3615. (Wooster)
