WORDS

Dennis Cooper / Gary Indiana:

Both will read from new novels that make panic visceral. In Cooper's Closer, sexually intertwined and emotionally numb high school boys long for authentic connections—and find them in the imprint of pain. Indiana's Horse Crazy is the journal of our plague years, its narrator obsessed to the point of madness over both the AIDS crisis and a self-absorbed love object. April 25 at 8:30, the Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, 255-5793. (Carr)
