

SEPTEMBER 29 - OCTOBER 6, 1999

FRIDAY

1ST

. Cheaper downtown event: multimedia artist Liz Phillips re-enacts a legendary 1972 “electronic banquet” ($25). Explained Ms. Phillips: “What’ll happen is, we’ll say, ‘Everybody, go get your food,’ and there’s going to be this huge pile of spaghetti, 50 pounds of spaghetti piled like hay—which is a dream I had when I was in Italy and was eating nothing but spaghetti—and the pile of spaghetti is tuned, with a huge field around it, and people will go with these metal utensils and—” Zaaap! Gee, let’s hope the E.M.S. guys have been alerted ...

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER
NEW YORK OBSERVER COMPANY, INC. ©
NEW YORK OCTOBER 4,
NEW YORK