Tommy Rubnitz is hysterically funny. His humor shines through all of his work: from Technicolor paintings of movie, TV and advertising icons (especially unknown women with the biggest possible hairdos) being featured in the windows of Barney's this month, to his supersaturated videos that boast a galaxy of downtown luminaries — all his friends. "Strawberry Shortcut," "Pickle Surprise," "The Mother Show," "Undercover Me" and more will be presented at The Kitchen on April 12, at 8 p.m. Come celebrate Tom and his work with hostess Lady Bunny and an all-too-rare live appearance by the inimitable Frieda.
