VOICES FROM THE WEST BANK

'Imaginary Landscapes': This two-week festival, curated by Nicolas Collins, looks to be the best fare from the Kitchen in years. Nominally, it's all electronic music, but that covers a lot of ground. First week: Maryanne Amacher's theater piece "Stain" (February 25), Ron Kuivila's and Mark Traylor's microcomputers making animal sounds and playing guitars (February 26), Lois Vierk with a tap dancer, Clarence Barlow with a player piano (February 27), and circuitry legend David Tudor (February 28). All concerts at 8:30, the Kitchen, 512 West 19th Street, 255-5793. (Gann)
