

The complete entertainment guide

FILM SPECIAL UNWRAPPING 30 NEW MOVIES

Hat tricks

of the Party of th

THE PROPERTY OF STREET, STREET

A tip of the cap to smart headgear

Restaurants where the wild things are

BOOKS

SATURDAY 23

Texty the Clown: The Inner Workings of Language in the Poet-Modern Ear The Kitchen, 512 W 19th St between Tenth and Eleventh Aves (255-5793). Subway: C, E to 23rd St. 7pm, $12. Emily XYZ and Edwin Forres are behind this four-part bid to establish spoken word as a formall its own. In the second event in the series, Mike Tyler, who has been called "a cross between Jimmy Swaggart and Iggy Pop," represents the heartland with a provocative performance from his new book, From Coloraao to Georgia. Gina Bonati offers up her potent mix of body language and the usual kind.

nt mix

Ms. Houston raises the rafters in The Preacher's Wife

