Twelve Hours of Peace and Music: Can you stand it? The Kitchen and Fashion Moda present 12 hours of live and DJed music in the Bronx, with bands Alfonia Timms, Rico, the Flying Tigers, the Jazz Masters and Y Pants. According to my information these bands personify the nexus between the truth and the unknown. Y Pants is toy rock (toy piano, ukelele and toy bass). Alfonia Timms does jazz. Call 925-3615 to inquire about the jitney that will depart from the Kitchen (484 Broome St.) for Fashion Moda (2803 Third Av.) in the afternoon. Bands start at 2 p.m. (free, $2 for the jitney).

Y PANTS, ALFONIA TIMMS & THE FLYING TIGERS, RICO & THE JAZZMASTERS, OTHERS Fashion Moda Sat. Thought-provoking cross-cultural inner-city fertilization, anyone? Soho/Village avant-garderie comes to the South Bronx, yet, and the ethereal, evanescent toy-music of Y Pants (the only group here I know) alone ought to be worth the trip. There will also be "Hip-Hop" DJing by performance artist Dan Graham among others. Shore
