

THE KITCHEN

CENTER FOR VIDEO, MUSIC
AND DANCE

ACTS

In the Bronx: The Kitchen moves its operations to Fashion Moda for 12 hours of live and deejayed music on October 18, beginning at 2 pm. The deejays are performance/video artist Dan Graham and South Bronx Hip Hop. The bands include Y Pants, Rico and the Jazz Masters, and Alfonia Timm's Flying Tigers. Performance curator Jackie Kain calls the event "something on the interface of performance art and music. Live performance is integral to the reworking of known songs." Fashion Moda, 2803 Third Avenue, Bronx, 925-3615. (Banes)

Village Voice Centerfold
Oct 15-21, 1980

Board of Directors

Robert Ashley
Paula Cooper
Suzanne Delehanty
Philip Glass
Eric Larrabee
Barbara London
Mary MacArthur
Meredith Monk
Barbara Pine
Carlota Schoolman
Robert Stearns
John Stewart
Caroline Thorne
Paul Walter

ACTS

Laurie Anderson: The aviatrix of the interplanetary airwaves plays New York in part two of her four-part episodic performance, United States, soon to be an LP. Besides her usual bit with feedback violins and so on, she's doing a gig with her sister. The family that plays together . . . October 26 at 11:00, October 27 at 7:30 and 10:00, Orpheum Theatre, Second Avenue at 7th Street, 260-8481 (Larson/Sandow)

HALEAKALA, INC. Village Voice Centerfold
59 WOOSTER Oct. 22-28, 1980
NEW YORK,
NEW YORK
10012
(212) 925-3615

MUSIC

Robert Dick, Jackson Macklow, Dick Higgins: On October 17 a recital by Robert Dick, master of new flute techniques and an extraordinary artist in every way—not to be missed. On October 18, music by Jackson Macklow (meditative improvisations) and Dick Higgins (realizations of the amusing, challenging verbal scores in his Piano Album). Both at 8:30, at the Kitchen, 484 Broome Street 925-3615. (Sandow)

Village Voice Centerfold
Oct. 15-21, 1980