RICHARD LANDRY

THURSDAY, FRIDAY DECEMBER 16 & 17
8:30 pm

Tickets: $3.50 ($2 members)

Richard Landry, composer-performer, will present a concert of his compositions at The Kitchen on December 16 & 17 at 8:30 pm.

Mr. Landry has been playing his solo saxophone concerts for the past four years, with recent concerts in Geneva, Switzerland and Berlin, Germany, as well as here in New York at Town Hall. In addition, he is a member of The Philip Glass Ensemble which just completed the highly acclaimed opera, Einstein On the Beach, performed at the Metropolitan Opera House, Lincoln Center.

Joining Mr. Landry is Richard Peck, saxophonist, also a member of The Philip Glass Ensemble, and his engineer, Kurt Munkasci. Together they will present Solo Music, Music for Two Saxophones and Tape Music for 15 Saxophones. Mr. Landry's main concern is with the saxophone as an instrument, always looking ahead for new directions.

About the music:

It is virtuoso playing...

Tom Johnson, Village Voice

An idea of order and constraint which is stunningly beautiful...

Sally Banes, SoHo Weekly News

There was a definite feeling of inner rhythm, body rhythm and the rhythm of thought....

Joan La Barbara

Mr. Landry is also known for his photographic and video work, and has been exhibited both here and abroad.

This concert made possible in part with assistance from National Endowment for the Arts, a Federal agency, and the New York State Council on the Arts.
