

the village

VOICE

FREE

September 28, 1999

voice choice

'SAPPHIRE'

Celebrating the publication of her new poetry collection, Black Wings & Blind Angels, Sapphire will appear at The Kitchen and take part in VLS's panel discussion "The Future of Fiction." See the Short List.

WORDS

"THE FUTURE OF FICTION" Talking about where fiction is and where it's heading are Push author Sapphire, Newsweek critic and novelist David Gates, novelists Lynne Tillman and Heidi Julavits, Editor Gerald Howard of Doubleday, and Albert Mobilio, winner of the National Book Critics' Circle Criticism Award. This panel discussion is hosted by the Village Voice Literary Supplement and New York Is Book Country. Sapphire's new book of poetry, Black Wings & Blind Angels, will be dramatized at The Kitchen the following two evenings. Free Panel Discussion: Thursday at 6, The New School, Tishman Auditorium, 66 West 12th Street, 229-5611; Dramatization $12: FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AT 8, The Kitchen, 229-5611.

